

LIBRARY EVENTS

Continued from page 4

resources that may be checked out, as well.

10:30 a.m. Tuesdays: Toddler Time Tuesday. Provides unstructured time for our youngest patrons to explore movement and music. Our Tonie boxes will provide the music and we'll shake maracas, wave scarves, and blow bubbles together.

11 a.m. Wednesdays: Ready Set Read Wednesday. Explore the library's collection of early readers, phonics materials and letter recognition games. Take-home reinforcement sheet provided.

10 a.m. to noon Friday, April 4: Homeschool Meet and Greet.

Our Family Reads. Start a new tradition over the weekend, reading together as a family. Our Family Reads are curated book bundles to read together with your family. picture books, fiction and nonfiction, a book bag and popcorn.

1 p.m. Monday, April 14 and April 28: Book Discussion Group. No assigned book to read. Group directed. Instead, share your insights, opinions, and views. Make recommendations. Join and share.

Putnam, 105 N. Center St.

9 a.m. Saturday, April 5: Books and Brunch.

Food, Books, and Friends.

Magnolia, 112 N. Chicago St.

9 a.m. to noon Saturday, April 5: Seed Starter.

3 to 7 p.m. Tuesday, April 22: Recycling Craft.

McNabb, 322 W. Main St.

4 p.m. Wednesday, April 2: Cardboard Bird Feeder Craft. Celebrate Earth Month by creating a bird feeder out of cardboard. All supplies will be provided.

Saturday, April 12: Seed Starting. Read a book on how to start growing seeds

4 p.m. Wednesday, April 23: Mini Gardens.

Celebrate Earth Month by creating a mini garden using recycled glass jars. All supplies will be provided.

Saturday, April 26: Chicken Hatching with Incubator. Study and watch for 10 days process until they hatch.

Standard, 128 First St.

12:30 p.m. Thursday, April 10: Historian Jim Gibbons will present "The Great Depression," starting in 1929 and ending during the war years of the 1940s. Gibbons will take you through the Roaring Twenties, the Stock Market Crash of 1929 and then into the 1930s and Franklin Delano Roosevelt's New Deal program.

IVCC

Continued from page 14

An average of 105 students enroll in the program and courses each fiscal year, resulting in a 5% increase over the last five fiscal years. On average, 61 students choose an agriculture certificate/degree/major, and more than 40% of agriculture students were in a transfer program.

"The Ag Complex will not only enhance educational opportunities for ber Award and Donald Leynaud, Outstanding Adjunct Faculty Member Award.

• The board learned of a change order to the CTC audio-visual technology upgrade project that will lower the cost of the project by $45,000, bringing the contract to $278,600.

• The board acknowledged the reappointments of non-tenured faculty for 2025-2026 including: Rebecca Caldwell, Early Childhood Education instructor; Michele Cheshareck, nursing instructor; Juliana Dzurisin, CNA instructor/program coordinator; Kora Jones, dental assisting instructor and Greg Whightsill, industrial maintenance and electricity instructor.

• The board learned of the appointments of Susan Weber, accounting clerk-payables/cashier and John Braikovich, custodian.

• The board learned of the resignations of Dr. Sammy Kumar, CNA instructor, and Lydia Huey, assistant women's soccer coach, and the retirement of Lynn Moore.

An Introduction to Quaker Meditation

Saturday, March 29, 2025
9:30 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

SYMPTOMS OF CARBON MONOXIDE POISONING

DIZZINESS

CHEST PAIN

CONFUSION

BLURRED VISION