in the U.S. Congress. Seven years later, she ran for the presidency and co-authored Title IX, the landmark legislation that opened up higher education and athletics to women. The documentary is 56 minutes in length, not rated, and is made possible through public performance rights through Kanopy.

4 p.m. Tuesday, May 6: Decorative Bird House Workshop. Decorate mini wooden bird houses to use as tabletop decoration or in a fairy garden. All supplies will be provided.

May 7 and 9: Card station. Available all day. Make cards for the special people in your life who have done so much for you. Art materials and blank cards provided.

10 a.m. Saturday, May 10, and 5 p.m. Tuesday, May 27: Tales with Tails (Read to Hobo). This program allows youth to practice literacy skills. Dogs love stories, even when words have to be worked out, missed or are misspoken.

5 p.m. Tuesday, May 13: Matter of Mind: My Alzheimer's. When the library hosts, in partnership with Independent Lens, the documentary "Matter of Mind: My Alzheimer's." The documentary is an intimate portrayal of three families confronting the unique challenges of Alzheimer's and how this progressive neurodegenerative disease transforms roles and relationships. Whether it's a partner becoming a caregiver or an adult child shifting into being their parents' caretaker, these stories show how families evolve when a loved one is diagnosed. Following the screening, representatives with the Illinois Valley Alzheimer's Group will share information on resources available in the community, and library staff will provide information on memory kits available through the library, and how everyday citizens can contribute to Alzheimer research with Stall Catchers, an online game created by the Human Computation Institute at Cornell University. The film is one hour in length, and the conversation will be about 45 minutes to one hour. "Matter of Mind: My Alzheimer's" premieres on PBS on May 5.

1 p.m. Tuesday, May 20: Movie Matinee: "Painting the Modern Garden: From Monet to Matisse." The library screens the documentary, "Painting the Modern Garden: From Monet to Matisse." For many great artists, the garden has long been considered a desirable subject for the expression of color, light and atmosphere. Claude Monet is perhaps the most well-known painter of gardens, but other greats such as Van Gogh, Pissarro, Matisse and Sargent all viewed the garden as a meaningful focus for their talents. This documentary takes a journey from the gallery to the gardens, to Giverny and Seebüll and other glorious grounds favored by artists, and how early 20th century artists designed and cultivated their gardens to explore contemporary utopian ideas and motifs of color and form. The documentary is 1 hour and 30 minutes in length, not rated, and is made possible through public performance rights through Kanopy.

4 p.m. Tuesday, May 20: Glass Gem Magnet Workshop. Learn how to make your glass gem magnets using flat glass marbles and a variety of craft supplies. All materials will be provided.

6 p.m. Thursday, May 22: The Happy Invention: History and Significance of Picture Postcards. Listen to a presentation on the history and significance of picture postcards. The first picture
