

ship and Community: 6 p.m. Tuesday, March 24. Attendees will be able to learn about gunmakers who created long rifles during the mid-to-late 1800s in the Illinois Valley. Antique firearms also will be displayed. The antique firearms are for educational purposes only. The program will be led by historian Curt Johnson.

Docs & Dialogue: Radioactive: The Women of Three Mile Island: 1 p.m. Tuesday, March 31. The documentary examines the 1979 Three Mile Island Nuclear Generating Station accident and its aftermath. "Radioactive: The Women of Three Mile Island" also tells the story of four homemakers and a journalist who challenged the plant operator to the Supreme Court. The one-hour and 17 documentary is part of the library's Docs and Dialogue series.

Chapter 250: Reading America's Story Together - Adults: 5 p.m. Tuesday, March 31. Participants can discuss the novel "The Notorious Benedict Arnold" by Steve Sheinkin. Attendees also can watch a preview of the PBS documentary "The American Revolution." Book copies are available at the library's Granville branch. The program is intended for adults ages 19 and older. Registration is required. To register, visit shorturl.at/FalKH.

Story time: 10 to 11:30 a.m. Wednesdays, March 4, 11, 18, and 25. The story times include a craft and a story.

IHCC- Health checks: 3 p.m. Wednesday, March 11.

Stem Activities: 11 to 11:30 a.m. Fridays, March 6, 13, 20, and 27.

Register to win an Umbrella to be given away: Tuesday, March 31.

Seed Library Exchange: Wednesdays and Fridays.

Chalk the Walk: Tuesday, March 31. Rainbow Allies.

Book Discussion Group: 1 p.m. Monday, March 9 and 23. Attendees will be able to make book recommendations and share book insights, views, and opinions.

Condit Branch, 105 N. Center St., Putnam

Books and Brunch: 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, March 7. Participants can discuss books. Food will be served.

Indie Lens Pop-Up: The Inquisitor: 4 p.m. Thursday, March 5. The 60-minute film explores the life and legacy of Texas congresswoman Barbara Jordan.

Docs & Dialogue: Blue Carbon: 4 p.m. Thursday, March 12. "Blue Carbon" examines coastal ecosystems' emerging role in addressing climate change. The documentary also explores the science behind "blue carbon," which is mangroves, salt marshes, and seagrasses, to remove carbon from the atmosphere. The one-hour, 24-minute documentary is part of the library's Docs and Dialogue series.

Bunco Club: 10 a.m. Wednesday, March 18. The club meets on a the third Wednesday of every month.

Decorative Bird House Workshop: 4 p.m.

Thursday, March 19. Attendees will be able to decorate miniature wooden birdhouses. Supplies also will be provided. The workshop is open to adults and children ages eight and older.

Chapter 250: Reading America's Story Together - Youth: 5 p.m. Thursday, March 26. Participants can discuss the books "Forge" by Laurie Halse Anderson and "Ben's Revolution: Benjamin Russell and the Battle of Bunker Hill" by Nathaniel Philbrick. Attendees also can watch a preview of the PBS documentary "The American Revolution." Book copies are available at the library's Condit branch. The program is intended for children ages eight to 14. Registration is required. To register, visit shorturl.at/u8coq.

Magnolia Branch, 112 N. Chicago St.

Community members who find a shamrock in a 35-minute book being checked out will receive a prize. The event runs through March.

National Cheese Doodle Day: Thursday, March 5. Cheese doodles will be served.

Paper Plate Saint Patrick's Day Craft: Saturday, March 14.

Rock Painting: Thursday, March 26.

McNabb Branch, 322 W. Main St.

Docs & Dialogue: American Stories: A Reading Road Trip: 5 p.m. Wednesday, March 4. "American Stories: A Reading Road Trip" explores Rhode Island's literacy legacy and historic and cultural institutions. The documentary features interviews with illustrators and writers such as Anika Aldamuy Denise, Christopher Denise, Oge Mora, David Macaulay, and Elizabeth Rush. The 35-minute documentary is part of the library's Docs and Dialogue series.

Fingerprint Shamrock Craft: 4 p.m. Wednesday, March 11. Participants can create a fingerprint shamrock design. Supplies will be provided. The program is open to children ages five and older.

Docs & Dialogue: Triangle Fire: 5 p.m. Wednesday, March 11. The documentary tells the story of the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory fire, New York City's deadliest workplace accident. The fire killed more than 100 workers and led to major labor law and workplace safety reforms. The 54-minute documentary is rated PG and part of the library's Docs and Dialogue series.

Chapter 250: Reading America's Story Together - Teens: 5 p.m. Wednesday, March 25. Attendees will be able to discuss "The World Turned Upside Down" by Tim Grove. Participants also can watch a preview of the PBS documentary "The American Revolution." Book copies are available at the library's McNabb branch. The club is intended for teens ages 13 through 19. Registration is required. To register, visit shorturl.at/lvd2o.

Standard Branch, 128 First St.

Luck, Laughter, and a Dash of Leprechaun Magic: 12:30 p.m. Thursday, March 12. Historical presenter Michelle Gibbons will portray a leprechaun and discuss St. Patrick's Day's true history blended with leprechaun origin tales.